

DISASTROUS FIRE SWEEPS DURHAM

Water Supply Fails and Entire Business Portion Threatened.

LOSS IS ONE MILLION.

Two Blocks Destroyed—High Winds Add to Horror—Firemen Unable to Check Conflagration.

Durham, N. C., March 24.—Two blocks of the town have been destroyed, and the fire is still raging. It is expected that the entire business district will be burned. More than a million dollars now is estimated as the loss.

Many have been injured, although no fatalities have been reported.

The postoffice and First Baptist Church are burning.

Over fifty firms are thrown out of business, the water supply is practically out, and a stiff wind is blowing.

The American Tobacco Company Building is threatened.

The fire departments from Raleigh and Greensboro are en route here on special trains. There seems no chance to control the fire, and it may sweep the entire city.

Powder and dynamite explosions in hardware stores are aiding the flames.

Durham, N. C., March 24.—The entire business portion of this city is threatened with destruction by a fire which originated in the Duke Building, a five-story structure, at 11 o'clock last night. Buildings occupying one city block have either been entirely destroyed or badly damaged, and the flames have spread to another block.

The flames raged for more than a half hour while the firemen stood helpless as a result of a break in the city water mains.

There also was another break which reduced the water pressure and hindered the firemen. The water supply still is intermittent.

Durham, N. C., March 24.—The largest block in the city is completely wrapped in flames. The Duke Building, occupied by 5 and 10 cent stores and 200 offices, has been destroyed. The water main has burst and the fire is spreading.

The Duke Building is a five-story office building. The flames are believed to have started in a plumbing shop on the second floor. Firemen are greatly handicapped in fighting the fire by a break in the water mains.

At midnight all of the buildings in the block occupied by the Duke Building were on fire. A heavy wind blew the flames, and parts of burning roofs fell throughout the city. The Academy of Music was in the path of the fire.

The water pressure improved two hours after the fire started at 11 o'clock, but it was intermittent. One of the breaks in the water main compelled the firemen to stop operations for a half hour, and this allowed the fire great headway.

Durham, according to the census of 1910, had a population of 18,240. It is widely known as a tobacco manufacturing centre.

Wilmington, N. C., March 24.—A telephone message just received from Durham says two blocks have been destroyed and the fire is raging wildly.

When the steamship Old Reliable sank in the Ohio below Colondra, Ill., Captain Arch Hollenbach was drowned.

A suit was started at Denver on the German-American Trust Company, no reason being known for the move of several hundred small depositors.

Governor Glynn, of New York, has signed three bills to extend the use of convict labor on State highways.

An unidentified negro was lynched yesterday at Inverness, Miss., for the murder of Sam Lisco, an Italian, at Greenville.

AT WASHINGTON THEATRES

"The Lure" at the Belasco—Live Show At The Gayety.

"The Lure," the last word in the exploitation on the stage of the nastiness of the underworld, presented at the Belasco this week, presents the various elements in the compound of the social evil and all their repulsive nakedness. Compared with it such plays as "The Eastway," are pinks of propriety. It leaves absolutely nothing to the imagination which fact perhaps constitutes the only apology that can be advanced against as severe a condemnation of such productions as the English language is capable of supplying. It deals with brothels, prostitutes, pimps, procurers, debauchery and villainy. It teaches no moral; it preaches no sermon for the purity of the family such as is preached in "Damaged Goods." In brief, it is unutterably coarse, vicious and nauseating. If anything can furnish an argument in favor of the appointment of a censor of stage productions it is a play like this one.

The social evil has existed as long as the human race; it is not at all probable that it will ever be completely eradicated; the most that can be hoped for is that it may be minimized to the last possible degree; certainly it ought to be kept within such bounds as human nature, properly regulated, will admit of. There is absolutely no excuse for parading it on the stage before the eyes of pure women.

The story which George Scarborough envelops in this exhibition, and which is made to serve as an excuse for it is that of a young girl who has been discharged from her employment in a store. Her mother's life can only be saved by an expensive operation. While in the store the "madame" of a house of ill-fame, who cloaks her vile business under the guise of an employment agency, has given the girl her card. The girl goes to the agency in the hope of getting employment. She tells the "madam" that she needs $100 to save her mother's life. The woman points out to her how she can easily earn that amount of money in her down town establishment. She has an encounter with the "Cadet," and with another white slave, is rescued just in the nick of time by a young detective.

The company which presented this play at the Belasco last night is made up of excellent material.

New Behman Show.

Few burlesque shows come to the Gayety during a season that have a shade on the new Behman Show, which opened its week's engagement at the popular Ninth street theatre yesterday. Lew Kelly, who has never been seen to laugh on the stage, and who keeps his audience in a constant uproar of laughter is the main attraction. When it comes to being funny he is about as funny as they come.

Sandwiched in between the fun there is plenty of catchy music and clever dancing to keep every one in good humor. The show is different from most burlesque offerings in that the chorus is given very little to do, and the principals hold the footlights the greater part of the time. It is a show of specialties and every one of them worthy of mention. The second act, which is concluded with a screaming war time burlesque entitled "Shenandoah," is a vaudeville performance in itself. Gertrude Lynch as Eva Tansuay; Laura Hayden as Maude Adams; Vic Casmore and George Douglas as Montgomery and Stone, were all excellent. The real hit of the show was Martelle, a woman impersonator.

The entire production is elaborately staged and costumed. The chorus is large and sprightly and did the little it was called upon to do in a pleasing way. Manager Peck is to be congratulated upon inaugurating "ladies week" with such an offering. There is nothing about the bill that the most scrupulous person could find objectionable. It affords two hours of clean, wholesome amusement.

RICHARD H. MANN SUCCEEDS GRONER

Petersburg Man Choice of McReynolds for District Attorney.

BURCH IS MARSHAL

Offices of District Attorney and Marshal Will be Moved to Richmond From Norfolk.

Richmond, Va., March 24.—Richard H. Mann, of Petersburg, will be named as United States District Attorney for the Eastern District of Virginia within the next three or four days, Attorney-General McReynolds definitely decided on the appointment yesterday, and it is expected that the nomination will be sent to the Senate within a few days. Confirmation of the appointment will have the effect of ending the term of D. Lawrence Groner, of Norfolk, who has served about two years since he was appointed to succeed Judge L. L. Lewis, of Richmond. There has been considerable conjecture for over a year as to whether the Department of Justice would allow Mr. Groner to serve out his four-year term. At first Mr. McReynolds intimated that the policy of the administration not to discharge the Republicans just to make places for Democrats would result in Mr. Groner serving his four years, regardless of the fact that he is really serving out two years of the unexpired four-year term of Judge Lewis. But recently Mr. McReynolds has weakened and gave ear to the urging of Congressmen Watson and the senators that he appoint Mr. Mann.

The Department of Justice has also decided to appoint Thomas Burch, of Martinsville, as United States marshal for the Western District, to succeed Marshal Robert A. Fulwiler, of Staunton, who forwarded his resignation to the Department December 1. Burch and Mann are expected to be nominated at the same time, either on tomorrow or Thursday.

The nominees for the other five big offices, whose names were sent to the Senate on Saturday, probably will not be confirmed until after Mann and Burch are nominated, and all seven may be confirmed at the same time, except Mr. Hart, of whose confirmation there is great doubt. Who will be nominated by President Wilson in the event that Mr. Hart's nomination is refused, has not yet been considered by the White House, although a strong plea is being made by the Ninth District Democrats and others deeply interested that the appointment of former Attorney-General Rufus A. Ayers is almost imperative, if Democrats are to take the Ninth District away from the Republicans through the election of R. Tate Irvin as Congressman.

There will be several shifts made in the locations of the offices of the collectors, district attorneys and marshals in Virginia, after the seven new officers are appointed. These will almost certainly result in Richmond securing the location of the district attorney's and marshal's offices at present located in Norfolk, and Roanoke gaining the removal there of the collector's office now maintained at Abingdon, and the district attorney's office now located in the Ninth District.

In the East, it is more than probable that District Attorney Mann will move the office from Norfolk, where it is now held by Mr. Groner, and establish it at Richmond, which is within easy reach of his home at Petersburg. Mann probably will be prevented from taking the office to his home town because of the recent ruling by the Department of Justice that hereafter offices cannot be moved from a city where there is a Federal court to a city not having a court.

The department will raise no objection to John G. Saunders moving the marshal's office to Richmond, his home, from Norfolk, where it is now maintained by Marshal Smithers.

R. C. L. Monroe, the new collector, will retain the office now occupied by Collector Lowry at Richmond, which will give Richmond all three of the Richmond offices, as the two are in the Western district, Richard

SITUATION IN ULSTER

Officers Believed to Have Been Told They Would Not Have to Fight Ulster.

London, March 24.—The defection of the army officers who refused to serve in Ulster is now a closed incident, but its consequences are likely to be far-reaching.

Premier Asquith and Colonel Seely, Secretary of State for War, made explanations before an excited and turbulent house yesterday that the whole affair was the result of a misunderstanding. The misunderstanding, it was inferred, although they did not directly say so, was due to misconception of the Government plans by the commanding general, Sir Arthur Paget, whereby he informed the officers in Ireland that they were to move on Ulster for a repressive campaign.

General Paget and three senior officers from the Curragh Camp—General Gough, Colonel McEwan and Col. Parker—were summoned to London for a conference. According to official statements, the misunderstanding has been cleared away and these officers returned to Ireland last night. Prior to their departure they said they were entirely satisfied with the results of their visit.

The terms on which the officers remain at their posts were not disclosed, but the general belief is that they were assured that they would not be compelled to fight against the Ulstermen. This is considered a distinct surrender by the Government.

Lord Morley, of Blackburn, explained in the House of Lords significantly that he did not think in the interests of the efficiency of the army that all that transpired in the army council should be made public and that the King approved the orders to the officers to return.

The future of the Home-Rule bill is wrapped in clouds. No declaration of "full steam ahead" or "meeting force with force" were heard from the liberals in the debate in the House of Commons today. None of the fire and firmness which permeated the speeches of the Ministers only last week was in evidence. The army has checked the Government, according to the Unionist's view, and the Covenanters of Ulster have won their fight.

No one will be surprised if the Government soon relinquishes armed force, as its action has the immediate result of striking a shower of sparks of class jealousies.

CARDINALS START WORK.

Players to Report Tomorrow for Spring Practice.

Realizing that the time is drawing near for the big game with the Nationals, Captain McBride, and Coach Burgundine, will take the boys out for the first time Wednesday afternoon at 5 p. m., if the park is in good condition. If the present weather conditions prevail the grounds should be in great shape, and by Sunday a scrub game will be played.

The following men will report at the park Wednesday: McBride, Nugent, Owens, Shalin, Burgundine, Sisdon, Snowden, Ittner, Brown, Devore, Lynn, Cain, Tremay, Astyke, Corl, Bayne, Jones, Cornell, and Sutherland. This is the best array of talent the Cardinals have had to pick from for some time and a very prosperous season is expected.

Mayor Thomas A. Fisher will soon issue tickets to the game to be played in Washington between the Washingtons and Cardinals April 7, which will be given to the pupils of the schools by their teachers.

FOR RENT—Two houses, six room bay window brick, 818 north Columbus street, and six room house, No. 529 north Alfred street. Apply at 603 Queen street. 24-St.

Evelyn Byrd said some day ago that, if appointed, he would establish the district attorney's office in Roanoke, taking it out of the Ninth district, where it is now held by District Attorney Gillespie.

The office of collector of internal revenue in the West will also be moved to Roanoke from Abingdon, where Collector Bailey now holds forth, regardless of whether Hart or Ayers is appointed. This will greatly benefit the service by putting the collector in the same city with the revenue agent, as Agent Sims was recently moved to Roanoke.

The Western marshal's office will be retained at Staunton, however, by Marshal Burch, where it is at present held by Marshal Fulwiler.

GOMEZ PALACIO IN REBEL HANDS

Frightful Carnage Reported at Gates of Federal Stronghold.

TORREON TOTTERS

Constitutionalists Engage in Fierce Hand-to-Hand Fighting Through Blazing Suburbs.

Constitutionalist Headquarters, Verjel, Durango, Mexico, March 24.—Gomez, Palacio, the suburb of Turreon, fell into the hands of General Francisco Villa's constitutionalist troops during the night.

With the suburb and Lerdo controlled by the rebels the fall of Turreon itself now seems only a matter of hours.

After having been driven out of Gomez Palacio at 9 o'clock last night, and suffering tremendous losses, the federals returned to the attack at midnight. Early today they were still engaged in a desperate conflict, but steadily retreating. The town is afire in a dozen places, and is threatened with destruction.

The downfall of Gomez Palacio was accompanied by the heaviest fighting since the Torreón campaign began. Early Monday the combined forces of Generals Urbina, Hernandez, and Rodriguez, personally commanded by General Villa, occupied Lerdo after scarcely more than a perfunctory resistance. Immediately Villa threw a large portion of his force, mostly cavalrymen, into the battle at Gomez Palacio, relieving the strain that had been placed upon the column headed by General Torribo Ortega.

Ortega had shelled Gomez Palacio all morning, but did not open a serious attack until Villa's men arrived in the afternoon. Villa's cavalry reinforcements were sent to the firing line at once, while his foot soldiers were held in reserve behind Ortega's column.

At Appenzell a carriage containing four persons was lifted from the road and hurled down a ravine, the occupants being seriously injured. Near St. Gall the main line was blocked with fallen trees, while at Rorschach roofs of houses and chimneys littered the streets, making them dangerous.

The hurricane was followed by a heavy snowfall in the Alps, two feet to three feet of snow being reported.

INSTRUCTS COMMISSIONERS.

Lists of Personal Property Must be Certified Under Oath.

The Auditor of Public Accounts has instructed the Commissioners of Revenue throughout the state to receive no lists of personal property not filled in and properly certified to under oath. These lists are to be subjected to a close examination by grand juries called for that specific purpose and Judge Bailey has informed Commissioner Callahan that he is determined to enforce the law in this particular and uphold the Auditor in his commendable effort to equalize taxation. In view of this and to prevent future embarrassment and trouble, Commissioner Callahan requests that taxpayers in this city be especially careful in making out their returns. The commissioner and his deputy are now making the annual house to house canvass. In addition thereto tax lists are being mailed to both resident and non-resident taxpayers in order to give all ample opportunity to make proper returns.

A description of the man was flashed to all surrounding towns, and a score of suspects were placed under arrest, only to be discharged when the wounded men failed to identify them.

Rupert was hurried to the Altoona Hospital, and Blackburn was taken to his home. In the meantime, the robber is described as a young man aged about 25, medium height, and smooth face. He wore no mask. The wounds of the two injured men are not necessarily of a fatal nature.

STORM IN SWITZERLAND.

Miles of Trees Prostrated by 150-Mile Gale.

Geneva, March 24.—Details of a terrible hurricane which passed over central, eastern and northern Switzerland, recently show that the damage caused was far greater than at first reported. Such a violent wind—in some places it blew at from 140 to 150 miles an hour—has not been experienced in this country since 1863, and it is surprising that the loss of life has not been greater.

Miles of forests were moved down, houses and chalets in the mountains were swept away, telegraph and telephone wires and poles were destroyed, electric tramcars stopped running in several places, and a number of avalanches fell.

At Appenzell a carriage containing four persons was lifted from the road and hurled down a ravine, the occupants being seriously injured. Near St. Gall the main line was blocked with fallen trees, while at Rorschach roofs of houses and chimneys littered the streets, making them dangerous.

The hurricane was followed by a heavy snowfall in the Alps, two feet to three feet of snow being reported.

STUART SIGNS STATE BUDGET

General Appropriation Bill as Passed Meets Governor's Approval.

CARRIES $14, 139, 341.

Spending Money Provided For Soldiers' Home Inmates—Other Appropriations Pending.

Richmond, Va., March 24.—The general appropriation bill, known as the House substitute for Senate bill No. 0, carrying appropriations for the operation of the State government and institutions for two years, was signed yesterday by Governor Stuart just as the bill came to his desk from Clerk John W. Williams, of the House of Delegates. A total amount of $14, 139,341 is carried in the measure, $7, 138,468 to be expended in 1914 and $7,020,873, in 1915. As it finally emerged from conference, the general appropriation bill was well within the $14,200,000 limit laid down by the Governor in his talks with members of the General Assembly as the maximum amount he would approve.

Appropriations made in the bill become available at once. Many of the state departments have become tardy in paying salaries, as the money voted in the general appropriation bill is for the fiscal year, which began on March 1, 1914. Salaries for the first half of March fell due on March 15, and department heads can issue the delayed vouchers at once.

As finally passed, the bill provides $580,000 for the graded schools and $540,000 for Confederate pensions in each year.

The Governor also approved yesterday the special appropriation measure known as House bill No. 313, providing $1.00 a month for pocket money for the inmates of the Lee Camp Soldiers' Home.

In addition to the sums voted in the general appropriation bill, the Legislature also passed special appropriation measures amounting to $292,000 and an appropriation of $180,000 for the purchase of the Ford Hotel property, provided there is a surplus in the treasury at the end of the fiscal year. None of these special appropriations has been signed yet.

VIRGINIA CONTESTS PLEA.

Brief Filed Objecting to Reopening of Divorce Case.

Washington, March 24.—Attorney-General Lilly, on behalf of the State of West Virginia, yesterday filed a supplemental answer with the United States Supreme Court which asks the court to reopen the entire West Virginia-Virginia debt case because of the recent finding of the West Virginia commission of alleged assets which, if credited proportionately to the younger state, would make a considerable "set off" to the amount which the Supreme Court declared should be paid to the Old Dominion.

The brief, presented in printed pamphlet form, sums up the claims made by West Virginia for "set off" similar to that presented to the Virginia commission at the time the last meeting was held in Washington last month, and contains practically nothing that was not set forth at that time. It also includes exhibits in printed form of the claims of West Virginia put forward at that time, Virginia's reply, in which it stated the "set off" could not be considered, and other communications.

Attorney-General John Garland Pollard and Randolph Harrison, acting as associate counsel, filed a brief objecting to the reopening of the case. Mr. Pollard said the question had been litigated eight years and should be settled speedily.

LOWER RIVER WHARVES.

No Piers Seriously Disabled by the Floating Ice.

Though heavy ice drifted with the river currents during the greater part of the month of February and early in March the wharves of the river, it is stated, escaped serious damage, and those that were injured can be quickly repaired. Somerset Beach, the longest pier on the Potomac, is said to have had a few piles broken, but they do not in any way interfere with the use of the wharf. As a general thing, following a heavy freeze, about half of the wharves on the river have to be rebuilt and their escape this winter is looked upon as remarkable.

The wharf at Winthrop, Md., better known as Stump Neck, where the United States Marine Corps has a rifle range and station, is to be rebuilt, but ice had nothing to do with making its rebuilding necessary. The pier, which was built about six years ago, has been unfit for service for several months past and the steamers have had to land freight there by small boats.

ASSOCIATION IS SUED

New York Woman Claims One of The Two Special Prizes at the Poultry Show

An echo of the recent poultry show held in Alexandria, under the auspices of Agricultural and Live Stock Association of Northern Virginia, which is attracting unusual interest in Alexandria, will be heard on Saturday morning at ten o'clock before Justice Julius Pelton, when the suit of Mrs. H. P. Wilson, of New York City, against the association will be commenced. Mrs. Wilson, who is the wife of a New York stockbroker, is reported to be worth several million dollars and has a residence at Holland Farms, four miles south of Alexandria city, in Fairfax county. She lives there a large part of her time and has been developing the property into a modern stockfarm.

When the poultry show was opened Mrs. Wilson was found to be the largest exhibitor. More than half of the exhibits were her property, and she had several hundred fine show birds on exhibition. In making their awards the judges gave all of the special prizes, a dozen or more in number, with the exception of two, to Mrs. Wilson. In addition she received nearly all of the other prizes.

When the exhibition closed Mrs. Wilson said that she thought that she was entitled to one of the two special prizes which she had not received. The judges were unwilling to change their opinion and the suit for the prize is a consequence. The prize is an electric stove valued at $15. Mrs. Wilson is represented by Attorney Howard W. Smith and the association by James R. and H. B. Caton.

MET. EP. CHURCH SOUTH

Business Affairs Settled at Meeting Last Night on Eve of Conference

The fourth quarterly conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, was held last night when all the business affairs of the conference year were settled. Dr. J. W. Duffey, who is ending his first year as pastor, will leave tomorrow for conference, which opens tonight in St. Paul's Church, Baltimore. His ministry and preaching have been eminently satisfactory to the congregation, and advancement is shown along all lines of church work.

RAILROAD CRITICAL.

Start Fight for Better Service by Old Dominion.

Half a hundred members of Park Lane Citizens' Association last night inaugurated a fight for better car service, between Park Lane, Alexandria county, and Washington, at a meeting at Park Lane Union Church. The meeting was tinged with caustic criticism of the service provided by the Washington and Old Dominion Company.

President Thomas C. Malone, who presided, urged all members to attend the meeting of Alexandria County Public Service Association tomorrow night, when the question of a bond issue for water works, roads, schools, and sewerage will be discussed. T. Marye was named a delegate to the meeting and appointed legal adviser to the Park Lane Association.

A committee was appointed to investigate the school problem in Park Lane. Addresses were made by W. W. Malone, president of Alexandria County Public Service Association; W. T. Hodges, superintendent of county schools, and Attorney Marye.

AFTER LAWBREAKERS.

Special Officer Payne Determined to Preserve Order on Trains. Special Officer A. J. Payne was present at an opportune time Saturday night and took charge of Frank Forsythe, whose conduct on an incoming electric train caused his arrest. The accused was taken before Justice Gordon Finney, in Alexandria county yesterday when he pleaded guilty as charged and was fined $5 and $2.50 costs. Payne says he will eventually break up disorderly conduct on electric trains.

MARRIED IN ROCKVILLE.

Thomas D. Kleh, of Washington, Wins A Virginia Bride. Thomas D. Kleh, of Washington, and Miss Nina A. Boyce, whose home was at Edgewater, Va., was married at Rockville Saturday afternoon, Rev. Frank M. Richardson, pastor of the M. E. Church South, of that place, performing the ceremony. Mr. Kleh, who is a brother of Frank B. Kleh, of the Highlands, and Miss Boyce first came to Alexandria, but the officials there, doubting the young woman's statement that she was of legal age, refused to issue the necessary permit. Returning from Alexandria the couple went to Rockville, where they were successful.

COUNCIL MEETS TONIGHT.

The regular meeting of the City Council will be held tonight. As was the case at the last meeting, most of the business to be presented will probably be of a general nature.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION

CAPE HENRY FORT SITE.

Condemnation of Property for Fortification Begins.

Norfolk, Va., March 24.—The condemnation of property at Cape Henry needed for the establishment of a fortification at that point of what is expected to be the greatest fortification of the nation, was begun yesterday before a jury in the United States District Court here, Judge Edmund Waddill, Jr., presiding.

The government has appropriated $150,000 for the acquisition of the necessary lands. An effort to buy the necessary property failed because the prices asked almost doubled the available appropriation. There are ninety odd property owners who are defendants, with the Cape Henry Syndicate owning most of the property which is needed. The large number of defendants in the case came about by reason of the fact that lots had been sold off and numerous cottages erected on land which is necessary for the fortification development.

Insurance Company to Liquidate.

Bristol, Va.-Tenn., March 24.—Following the announcement of Commissioner of Insurance Joseph Button that he will not again license the Appalachian Insurance Company of Bristol, Va., to do business in the State, except upon condition that it merge with a larger company, the concern is considering a plan of liquidation. A committee, composed of J. H. McCue, C. J. St. John and M. H. Copenhaver, has been named to confer with Commissioner Button. The Appalachian Company is about six years old. It began business in Roanoke, Va., but its general offices were moved here four years ago.

May Help You If

Lungs Are Affected

Proper diet, fresh air and temperate habits are beneficial to persons suffering from Lung Trouble. But in a great many instances, reports show that the addition of a medicine for this affection has materially helped in bringing about recovery. For more than fifteen years Eckman's Alternative, a medicine for Throat and Lung Troubles, has accomplished good results. Read what it did in this case:—
"Gentlemen: In December, 1908, March, 1909, and September, 1909, I was taken with hemorrhages of the lungs which continued on several weeks, each time to my bed. My doctor advised me to go West. In November I started for Denver, Col. After my arrival I met Michael Brody, who, upon learning of my condition, urged me to take Eckman's Alternative. I kept on taking the medicine and improved fast. In March, 1910, I returned home. I am entirely well, have a good appetite and sleep well. When I left Denver my weight was 130 pounds. I now weigh 165, my normal weight. I thank God and your Alternative for my health."
Eckman's Alternative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Croup, Asthma, Stiff Neck, Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists.

LOSES BOTH LEGS.

Negro Passenger Falls From Moving Train, Now Wants $30,000.

Culpeper, Va., March 24.—J. Dorsey, colored, a resident of this county, who has for some years been employed in Washington, has entered suit through his attorneys, Hiden & Thurlow, of Culpeper, for $30,000 damages against the Southern Railway Company for injuries received while a passenger on that railway last July.

It is alleged that Dorsey, who has for some years been employed as butler in the family of Dr. Harpan, of Washington, was coming from Washington to Culpeper to visit his parents, who live near Stevensburg. When the train reached Culpeper he was asleep and did not get off. As it was pulling out of the station he was told by an official to get off, and did so while the train was in motion, with the result that he was thrown under the moving train and had both legs cut off between the ankle and knee.

BOY ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.

Bullet Intended for Robin Strikes James Bridgeforth.

Kenbridge, Va., March 24.—James Bridgeforth, the 15-year-old son of George T. Bridgeforth, was accidentally shot with a .22 calibre rifle on Saturday afternoon. The rifle was in the hands of his cousin, Joseph Bridgeforth, and the boys were engaged in shooting robins from an upper window of their home. The bullet struck in the boy's side and it could not be determined whether or not the stomach or intestines were injured. Dr. Harris deemed it best to take him to Richmond, where he can have proper hospital attention and a speedy operation, should it be necessary to operate.

Ousts Miss Mattie Tyler.

Norfolk, Va., March 24.—After serving twenty years as postmistress at Courtland, Va., Miss Mattie Tyler, granddaughter of John Tyler, tenth president of the United States, has lost her position by order of President Wilson. President Wilson issued an order recently that all postmasters at fourth class offices must pass a civil service examination. Miss Tyler declined to take the examination. There were four applicants, and B. A. Williams made the highest average. President Wilson has appointed him to succeed Miss Tyler. She wept when the news was brought to her. She says she will fight for the job.

Chosen Archdeacon.

Onancock, Va., March 24.—Rev. Custis Fletcher, of Temple, Tex., son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Fletcher, of Onancock, has been elected archdeacon of the Episcopal diocese of Texas. Mr. Fletcher was graduated from the Theological Seminary at Alexandria, and his first rectorship was at Tazewell, Va., from where he went to Cincinnati, thence to Texas, three years ago.

The dreadnought Oklahoma which was launched yesterday from the yard of the New York Shipbuilding Co., at Camden, N. J., will be one of the most powerful battleships that has yet been floated for the American navy.

DAMAGE SUITS TO BE FILED.

Relatives of Explosion Victims Will Bring Action Against Oil Companies.

Winchester, Va., March 24.—No State or local law can be found by the Winchester authorities whereby oil companies can be criminally prosecuted for selling to local retailers kerosene containing a large per cent of gasoline, but it was learned yesterday that it is not unlikely a number of suits will be instituted in the courts here by the relatives of eleven persons who have been burned to death by coal oil explosions, all of which occurred within two weeks, while there are twenty or more others who still feel the effects of burns arising from the same sources. Six samples of oil gathered from retailers by the police recently, were analyzed by the State Chemist, E. W. Magruder, at Richmond, and in his official report, made public here Saturday, it develops that each sample contained gasoline. One sample in particular, ignited at a temperature of 42 degrees, and it is declared by the chemist to be a gasoline oil, and not a kerosene oil. It is not believed the refiners mixed gasoline with coal oil purposely, principally because the former commands almost double the price of kerosene, but that the oil sold here recently contained a large percentage of gasoline is not denied. Some of the families of the explosion victims are poor and well-nigh dependent upon others for assistance, and their cases have aroused much sympathy. Some of the lawyers, it is said, have indicated their willingness to represent the sorely stricken families in civil suits without compensation, and now that no law can be found by which the oil companies can be prosecuted criminally, it is expected damage suits will be filed without further delay.

$800 FOR DEATH OF BOY.

Verdict Against Railway Company at Vienna, Virginia.

Vienna, Va., March 24.—At the March term of the Circuit Court in session at Fairfax Court House, with Judge J. B. T. Thornton, of Manassas presiding, a verdict was rendered Friday against the Washington and Old Dominion Railway Company, granting damages in the sum of $800 to Francis Jackson, of Herndon, for the death of his 16-year-old son Frank last July near Coral Station. The boy was sitting on the edge of the track and was apparently asleep. His chest was crushed, neck broken, both arms and legs broken, his right arm being nearly severed from the body and his left hand torn off.

A jolt to the car was the first intimation the trainman had of an accident, and the car was run back to where the body lay. The evidence disclosed that Motorman Johnson, who was running the car, had seen an object on the track, but said he thought it looked like an old bundle of rags or something of that sort. He admitted he could have stopped the car before reaching the object.

Boy Kills Sister.

Belleville, N. J., March 24.—James Falcon, 6 years old, lifted his sister Rosa, aged five, against a wall and said: "You're a Mexican prisoner," and shot her dead, using both hands to pull the trigger of the revolver.

"Why shouldn't a man be willing to recommend a tobacco which gives as cool, sweet and satisfying a smoke as Tuxedo?"

There is a Great Difference in Tobaccos

Tuxedo is the Mildest, Sweetest, Most Pleasant Smoke in the World, Because—

First—No one but the makers of Tuxedo is willing to spend the money necessary to buy the mildest, choicest, most thoroughly aged, selected Burley tobacco.

Second—No one but the makers of Tuxedo knows how to treat this Burley tobacco so that every bit of pleasantness and goodness remains in the tobacco and every bit of unpleasantness and harshness is taken out.

Tuxedo

The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

Tuxedo was born in 1904. Its first imitator appeared two years later. Since then a host of imitations have been born, and are clamoring for your patronage.

No imitation is ever as good as the original. No amount of advertising, no amount of bluster and bluff, can ever make an imitation tobacco as good as Tuxedo.

If you are not a pipe smoker, you are denying yourself the greatest smoking pleasure known to man. One week of Tuxedo will give you more enjoyment than you have ever had—and at the end of the week your nerves will be better and your general health will have improved. Try Tuxedo this week!

NEWS OF THE DAY

The next man who passed through Hastings, N. Y., selling beautiful yellow canary birds, guaranteed singers, for $1, is likely to be lynched by the foreign element employed at the National Conduit Cable Company's plant about 100 yds. The birds were sold on Saturday by a peddler who had them in neat wooden cages. The birds refused to sing, but took a bath whenever water was offered them. They turned out to be painted sparrows.

Three shots from a pistol were fired at the judges sitting in the sixth chamber of the palace of justice in Paris yesterday by Mme. Lavigne de Sainte-Luzanne, wife of a high official of the ministry of the colonies. At the moment she fired she shrieked, "I will kill these base judges." The shooting occurred during the hearing of a divorce case in which she was a witness. One of the attorneys had just alluded to the despair of some wives who were unable to obtain justice. The authorities say the woman is insane.

A dispatch from Frankfurt-on-the-Main, Germany, says Carl Hopf, the druggist, of that city, who has been named the "Bluebeard of Germany" was beheaded yesterday for murdering his father, his first wife, and his two children. The accused man was found guilty of the charge in January and also of attempting to murder his second and third wives and several other persons. Hopf, who used typhus and cholera germs on his victims to reduce to a minimum the possibility of his being detected as a murderer, was described at his trial by the prosecutor as the most "scientific" slayer Germany has ever known.

John Mitchell, the labor leader, appeared yesterday before the subcommittee of the House Committee on Mines and Mining, which recently made an investigation of the strike situation in the Calumet copper region of Michigan. Mitchell expressed the view that there should be Federal legislation forbidding the transportation into an affected area of hired strike-breakers from other localities. He also told the committee that there should be a drastic inhibition upon the transportation from State to State of hired mine police from the private detective institutions.

Emma Goldman, Alexander Berkman, and all their anarchist and I. W. W. following will be kept under strict police surveillance, according to Police Commissioner McKay, of New York, and any attempts to revive the disorder on Fifth avenue on Saturday will be met with arrests and riot charges. "It doesn't make much difference what McKay thinks or says," declared Joseph J. Cohen, head of the Francisco Ferrer Modern School, when informed of the commissioner's statement. "There will be other demonstrations. Whether there will be riots or not depends upon the police. If they want a fight they can have it by trying to stop us on April 4, when we will hold a great mass meeting in Union Square."

STRONG AND WELL

We want to get the news to all old people about Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion, a remarkable new food-medicine which we firmly believe is the best remedy ever made to overcome the weakening, debilitating effects of increasing old age. It helps to rebuild wasted tissues, strengthen the nerves and give new energy and a lively feeling to the body. It contains no alcohol or dangerous drug. It may not make you feel better for a few days, but if you do not feel much better and stronger before you have taken a quarter as much as you have of other medicines that have not helped you, we will gladly give back your money.

Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion contains Pure Olive Oil and Hypophosphites which, though they have long been endorsed by successful physicians, are here for the first time combined. The result is a real body, nerve and blood-building food-medicine that we believe is superior to anything else in overcoming debility, weakness and inability to disease, and to tone and strengthen the nerves and enrich the blood. Phivice, a Baltimore tailor, murdered his wife yesterday by slashing her throat with a razor. After killing his wife the man committed suicide by cutting his own throat. Jealousy is believed to have caused the murder and suicide.

THIEF CAUGHT ON THE FLY.

Detective in Aeroplane Intercepted Ship and Carries Him Ashore.

Miami, Fla., March 24.—Flying 21 miles in an aeroplane, Harry Schade, a detective of this city, overtook the steamship Miami, after she had left this city last Friday, and arrested a colored hotel employee, who covered a missing brooch belonging to a New York society woman, and flew back to this place with his prisoner.

The owner of the brooch, a guest of the Royal Palm Hotel, had reported its loss several days before. Efforts to find the ornament were unsuccessful, and it was determined to watch the employee. One of them, a Cuban, showed an unusual interest in the brooch, and was followed by the detective. He was seen to take the brooch from his pocket and hide it in his shoe. The detective followed him to the ship, and arrested him as he was about to leave.

It was not until the vessel had steamed that the presence of the Cuban aboard was learned. Wireless messages to the captain of the Miami confirmed the report that he had taken passage. It was also learned that the Miami was detained off Cape Florida by low tide.

The manager of the hotel then enlisted the aid of C. C. Witmer, who has been furnishing society with diversion by carrying passengers aloft in his flying boat. Witmer agreed to take the hotel's detective and an assistant, George Hallett, to overtake the steamship.

Despite a drizzling rain the vessel was overhauled in less than half an hour. Witmer dropped to the water alongside the Miami, and leaving Hallett to guard the flying boat, went on board with the detective.

They found the man wanted, who was placed under arrest without resistance, and was lowered to the waiting aeroplane, which immediately ascended with its pilot and 3 passengers, quickly making the return voyage to Miami.

Less than an hour was consumed in the entire flight, including the time spent in going on board the steamship and arresting the prisoner.

A search of the prisoner resulted in the recovery of the brooch. The ornament was restored to its owner, but Schade learned that he had acted without authority in arresting the man outside the 3-mile limit off shore. He therefore released him.

FEARS "TOMCATISM."

Mrs. John Martin Predicts Dire Outcome of Feminism.

New York, March 24.—Mrs. John Martin declared in a debate on "Feminism," under the auspices of the League of Political Education, at the Hudson Theatre, that the agitation for feminism would, if successful, bring upon the world an era of "tomcatism."

"Man, once the lord of creation," said Mrs. Martin, "will be reduced to the surreptitious, subordinate status of the domesticated tomcat."

"Under the new order man is to lead a futile existence, with no organic relation to homes. He will be like the male drone in the bee hive. The main activities of the hive will be in the hands of industrious, self-supporting spinsters."

The goal of feminism is the commercialization of life, the disintegration of the home, and sooner or later we must range ourselves with the home or against it."

TUCKER QUILTS AS CHAIRMAN.

About to Sail in Interest of San Francisco Exposition When Recalled.

Washington, March 24.—Henry St. George Tucker, of Lexington, Va., who was president of the Jamestown Exposition, has resigned the chairmanship of a commission appointed by the State Department last June to visit Tokyo in the interest of the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

Behind the resignation of Mr. Tucker, which was announced Saturday by Secretary Bryan, is said to be an alarming report from Ambassador Guthrie, strongly advising against the visit of Mr. Tucker to Japan. In a cipher message to Secretary Bryan a month ago, the American Ambassador is said to have expressed the fear that Mr. Tucker's presence in Tokyo would lead to an anti-American demonstration.

Upon the receipt of Ambassador Guthrie's warning, Secretary Bryan is said to have sent a letter to New York recalling Mr. Tucker, who was about to sail for Japan. From semi-official sources it is learned that Secretary Bryan informed Mr. Tucker that he might be "stopped by a mob" in Tokyo.

"So far as I know," said Secretary Bryan, "Mr. Tucker's reasons for resigning are entirely personal. My understanding is that he would have been willing to go if a time had been set for the departure of the commission."

The Secretary of State offered no explanation as to why no date had been set for the departure of the commission, but it is an open secret in diplomatic circles here that this government, in view of the inflamed public sentiment in Japan over the California alien land law situation, deemed it advisable to conduct an investigation through the regular channels of diplomacy to determine how the commission would be received by the subjects of the Mikado.
